OPPORTUNITY: Free Food Every Weekend

Through a partnership between our school, the community, and an organization called The Sheridan Story, you have the opportunity to sign your child up to receive a free bag of non-perishable food each Friday.

Food each weekend
Your family's privacy protected
Completely free

We know that our students have incredible potential, and as a school and a community, we believe providing consistent healthy meals is one way we can help them reach that potential.

Enrollment is open!
Please sign this permission slip to join the program!

If you have any questions, please contact the school Family & Community Liaison.
